An Interesting Personal Letter.
We have just received a very interesting letter from an old and well-known resident of Oxford County which we publish below. We trust he will favor us with further sketches and reminiscences of Oxford County and its people, as he remembered them, which cannot fail to be interesting especially to our older readers.

Mr. Editor.—I received a copy of the ADVERTISER recently, which is the first copy I have seen for nearly forty years. I first saw the light in Norway in 1843, May 25, on the last farm on the old country road from Portland to Vermont. Timothy Hutchinson, esq., was afterwards settled on the farm. Frank Hobbs had been promoted to 2d Lieut. of the Company and Archibald Fuller and John A. Hayes, Esqs., were in the company.

The Children's Prize Letters.
In the issue of July 13th, Mr. F. Corson, of Andover, decided in favor of No. 70.

White rages again in dress this season.
Against its wear, even the chronic croakers who usually croak any way. Six out of ten of the elegant toilets made this season are cut with a round waist.

Old Run Out Fields.
I wish to say a few words in regard to our old grass fields. The question arises in my mind why they are brought back to a fair crop of hay in the last time.

Swedish, July 16th, 1885.
"Born and raised on a farm." Any boy should thank God for being so fortunate as to be born and raised on a farm.

kept in good order, in not more than five minutes' time each day. Try it by fling it to an edge from the underside, to see how much more work you can do in the same time, and how much more easily.

NEWS ITEMS.
Kato R. Stone, newspaper of Fryburg Agency, is stopping at her home in Bridgton.

Reports from all parts of Western New England show that the hay crop will be much larger than last year, the potato crops are less abundant than they have been, corn is the only winter crop and that promises to do fairly well.

The "May" at the Denison pulp mill, Canton, has been satisfactorily adjusted.

The war clouds are again gathering between Russia and Rumania. At the formal opening of the Niagara Park there were 75,000 strangers present.

A decree dissolving the Marquis de Caux from Madam Patti has been pronounced.

Miss Smith's reference case occurred recently in wide-awake Denmark. Mr. Alanson Emerson, Superintendent of the town farm, seeing an ox in the pasture set his dog upon him to drive him out. The first attempt not succeeding he sent one of the paupers with the dog to drive him out.

The fall term of school at the New Hampton Institution opens Aug. 24th. Connected with this school is one of the best Commercial Colleges in New England. The expenses are less than any other similar school or college. Send for catalogue.

We have received a copy of the South Florida Advertiser published in Sanford, Fla. It is an interesting sheet and shows up the interests of that section in good shape.

Spain seems to be given over to cholera notwithstanding reports of a few days ago, that the epidemic was decreasing. From March to the first week in July there were 28,000 cases and 12,327 deaths reported in 10 provinces, and in about 2,000 cities and villages the disease is now in full force.

In another column will be found the ad. of the Oak Grove Seminary. This is the only institution of the kind owned by the Society of Friends in the State though it is open to all classes. The new school building is being built and is 40x60 with main floor, slated with three stories above basement. The first floor above basement is divided into schoolrooms, classrooms, library and laboratory. The second and third floors used for girls dormitories, bath rooms, etc. Phillips Bros. of Lisbon Falls are the contractors. They built the Coburn Classical Institute at Waterville.

BOLSTER'S MILLS.
Rev. A. B. Lovell died suddenly last Friday morning of heart disease. He was buried Saturday, Rev. Mr. Abbott officiating. Mr. Lovell has been the Advertiser's correspondent for this section for many years and will be missed among our readers. We wish to obtain more particulars so as to be able to give a sketch of his life for our next paper.—E.D.

EAST WATERFORD.
Ansel Bean is repairing the buildings of O. A. Martin. Daniel Clark of Albany has been doing some of the carpenter work for him.

BRIDGEVILLE.
Mrs. Edith McNeill lately received a present of a new cow from her father, T. H. Sawin of New Waterford. Having is now commenced in this part of the town, but in many places the farmers will have to "cut the grass together with a cut and burn" before it can be cut. This may seem like exaggeration, and may be so, but certainly some old fields look as though they would have to be cut in this way. Mrs. Lizette Johnson of New Norway has gone to Waterville to Dr. Shattuck's Water Cure Establishment.

J. E. McIntire has gone to Canada.

HANOVER.
Mrs. Ada Richardson, who with her two children were visiting at O. D. Rolfe's, was called home to Portland last Monday by the sudden death of her father, Edmund Abbott.

Mrs. J. B. Howe has gone to Portland. Mrs. Daniel Estes, 85 years old, lives with her daughter, Mrs. James Estes at Locke's Mills, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Barker 93 years old. They are both surviving children of Nathaniel Legare.

Hon. Reuben Foster and family are stopping in town for a short time.

C. B. C. W. and Dan. Frost with O. F. Russell have been to Mettville brook and caught upwards of 100 trout.

Elmer E. Howe has hired with E. P. Smith during the haying season.

Channing Frost works for R. Foster.

H. M. Howe has a new Champion one horse mowed and with Arthur hold of the webbing the grass is falling like dew before the sun.

R. Foster is making an important addition to his residence. S. A. Putnam does the carpenter work.

Perley son of Perley Libby of the firm, Libby, McNeil & Libby of Chicago, is stopping at F. B. Roberts reviewing his studies and reciting some of his Latin. At present he is in a rustic frame house caused by a nagging chip.

Mrs. Emma Mason, who is partially insane, is now a patient at the Asylum. The doctors express no hopes of her recovery.

Martha Bartlett, who attends Normal School at Gorham, is at home on a vacation.

As a party were returning from Bethel last Monday night they discovered a black and white shawl beside the road. The owner can have the shawl without charge by describing the property to Eugene Bagunell.

CANTON.
Geo. F. Towle, musician and music dealer has his leg broken last week by being thrown from his wagon at Canton Point. He is now doing well, by a physician and is now doing well.

The employees at the Pulp mill have commenced work again, having come from the County.

Mrs. Chas. C. Ellis is quite sick.

J. S. Mendall and his daughter Mrs. F. A. Parsons are on the sick list.

Dr. C. R. Davis has raised a large quantity of fine strawberries on a beautiful piece of ground. They are beautiful.

The grass crop will be fully up to the average in this vicinity.

The Hanover Family give an entertainment here Sat. eve. July 25.

H. H. Burbank and family go on a trip to North Conway, N. H., this week.

EAST FERRIS.
Dela and Anna Poland are at home on a vacation from the trunk factory of Livermore, also their sister Alice from the Waltham watch factory. Alice and Edgar M. Hayward finished haying the 9th, others are very busy.

An aged lady, sister of Jacob: Bell, fell down stairs and sprained her wrist yesterday.

MASON.
S. Grover found his two-year-old cat dead in the back pasture, where it had been struck by lightning. This cat was a loss for Mr. Grover as the cat was a fine one. We all sympathize with him, and wish the sympathy might be expressed in a more solid form.

Two wild deer were seen by the families of Nathan and Daniel Mills on Daniel Mills' interval late Wednesday.

Rev. A. H. Witham is supplying the pulpit of the M. E. Church in Gorham for a few Sabbaths.

Mrs. B. V. Bean picked a fine lot of pease the 19th of July.

Levi Bartlett found his yearling colt in the back pasture with hedging quills in his feet.

Hovee Hutchinson, although unable to do much work himself, is securing his hay rapidly with a crew of six men.

A. G. Lovejoy commenced haying Monday morning in good earnest with six men but the rain Tuesday morning dampened their ardor considerably.

Charles Merrill of Bethel has a very nice colt by Hampton, Jr. Wesley Wheeler of Shelburne, N. H., has a Hampton, Jr., colt three weeks old for which he has refused $50.

Samuel Grover had a very nice colt killed by lightning a few days ago.

A. G. Lovejoy has two pairs of very nice matched calves. They are said to be the best pairs in town.

Twenty-one years ago James Price of Biddeford was around in this vicinity buying lambs for the market. He was owned by Joseph Lovejoy. Last week he returned for the same purpose, using the same mare now owned by S. A. G. Lovejoy. She is now 27 years old and as smooth and sound as a young colt and equally as good a driver as one half of the horses many years her junior although she has raised twelve colts.

G. H. Brown, esq., scalded his hand very badly.

Mrs. A. G. Lovejoy is raising a nice lot of turkeys. She has several chicks.

FLORENCE M. L.

Having is now well advanced and those who predicted a poor hay crop have reaped an average harvest.

An agreeable serenade was given us one evening last week, by the Norway Cadet Band.

Geo. Crockett and others are constructing a summer house near the shore of the lake, on the land belonging to Winnie Parkington returned last Saturday from a short sojourn in the country.

Frank Hill's return from Augusta is welcome to all his friends and comrades.

Sarah Newhall, Sadie Donovan and Master D. Welch are expected here by their relatives the first of the week.

Mrs. W. D. E. of Biddeford visited this place last Saturday and Sunday.

Chas. Partridge and F. F. Greene are cutting the grass on the Mills' place at shires.

Mrs. A. J. Johns has left the lake for a short retreat from her labors.

RICHARDSON'S LAKE.

Last Monday a fisherman while in a boat at the upper dam thought he saw an extra large trout coming through the gate.

Before he had time to throw his net to notify any one a tremendous rush of water came pouring through the gate.

Mr. W. D. E. of Biddeford visited this place last Saturday and Sunday.

WEBB'S MILLS.
Miss Susie Barrett of Missouri, who has been visiting her brother, Wm. R. Webb, at this place went from here today.

The skating rink is now open every evening and is being well patronized. There is a new rink there to be located at the hall, commencing in August, under the instruction of Mr. Manchester of No. Windham.

This quiet villa was suddenly thrown into quite an excitement Thursday p. m., July 19th, when during a very heavy thunder shower the lightning struck one of the tall elm trees in Frank Shiller's yard opposite Duran's store. The lightning's flash and thunder's peal came instantaneously and with such terrific power that in an instant every one was running and looking, fearing that their homes had been struck. Fortunately there was no fire but Jessie Spiller, a girl about fifteen years old, who was sitting near the window was so stunned that she laid insensible for hours, but is now gradually recovering.

John Penley of Paris spent a few days here last week with his sister, Mrs. A. C. Dyer.

Our stage driver, Mr. Dyer is having so much business that he now drives a pair, one horse not being sufficient to do the work.

Lizzie Jackson, who has been spending some months with her sister, Mrs. John Brown, returned to her home July 5th.

SOUTH HIRAM.

Monroe French, our village blacksmith, had a tumor taken from his shoulder Sunday, July 19th. It was about as large as a goose egg. He rode to Cornish and had the tumor taken out and sent to the village surgeon, who is doing as well as could be expected.

James Edgcomb has got an arrow that once belonged to an Indian chief in Idaho. It is quite a curiosity.

BYRON.

Mrs. Wm. Thoms is sick. Her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Abbott of Boston, is at home on a visit.

Geo. Cooper and family formerly of the Canton House, Canton, have moved back to their father's, L. S. Flanders.

Charles Sim, of Boston, is at Mr. Johnson's, where he will spend the summer.

Thomas Patterson has moved into the Fred Knapp house.

Charles Rundlett has moved into the Geo. Cooper house near Coos Bridge.

Mrs. Morton Clough of Portland, Mass. who has been visiting her father, Hiram Richards, has returned home.

Wallace Reed, Chas. Holston, Fred Knapp and Bert Rundlett have gone down to Waterville Monday.

John Hylan has bought the "Corland Farm" of Fred McDonald.

Walter Chidwick is visiting his grandfather, Wm. Thoms.

Elmer Houghton is at home where she will spend the summer.

Bears are quite thick. A very large one was seen to take a sheep in the twilight from John Shaw's pasture. It walks into the woods at night in its mouth.

LOVELL.

Mrs. Mary E. Abbott, wife of Sylvester Abbott at the Centre, has been very sick of late. She was taken with measles followed by pneumonia, inflammation of the bowels. Her recovery was not thought possible, but she is now getting well.

Having is now well under way, but the rain is very heavy.

Jay C. Brown of Manchester, N. H., is canvassing our vicinity for Young Folks. A paper similar to The Youth Companion and in all respects as high an order.

John Foster, who has until recently been engaged largely in mechanical business in Mass., spent the winter in visiting his mother at Daniel Clark's. He is delighted with Florida.

Mr. Clark and his wife from Georgetown, Mass., are visiting at her brother's, P. P. Dresser, and among the Loveloy of South Paris, a sister of Mr. Dresser, recently made him a short visit at his "homestead."

James Prince of Biddeford, purchased a carload of fowls in New York and Bethel last week. Thanks he will be after another car load in a few weeks.

Mr. Moulton of Sweden is picking up choice lots of water venison at per pound; not a very high figure, it is.

CRATON.

The late rain has done everything but refresh the soil. Grass is looking well and promises to be a good crop in this vicinity. So far no crop in this vicinity has been injured by the late rain.

Very interesting and well attended prayer meetings are held at the school house every Sunday afternoon.

WELLSVILLE.

Don Squire's wife is visiting his uncle, Chas. Bryant.

Mrs. C. T. Boynton and family of South Framingham, Mass., is visiting at the Boynton homestead.

The farm belonging to Joseph Frye was burned in Minor last Saturday morning at about 6.30. The fire originated in the barn. Cause unknown. The barn was a new one, built by the Frye family, and although it was well insured by the Farmers' Mutual Insurance Co. of New York, it was not covered by the policy.

The farm belonging to Joseph Frye was burned in Minor last Saturday morning at about 6.30. The fire originated in the barn. Cause unknown. The barn was a new one, built by the Frye family, and although it was well insured by the Farmers' Mutual Insurance Co. of New York, it was not covered by the policy.

Very interesting and well attended prayer meetings are held at the school house every Sunday afternoon.
